

LARGE ANIMAL EMERGENCY RESCUE AWARENESS-LEVEL COURSE

Presented by Equine Guelph,
University of Guelph

Location:

Whinny Hill Equestrian Centre - 784 Conquerall Road,
Lunenburg, NS B4V 6C5

Date:

Friday, August 15th, 2025 (9am to 4pm) Almost Full
(Now accepting registration for second course on Saturday, August 16th)

Cost:

$150 (lunch and nutritional breaks included)
Large Group rate available, contact nsef@sportnovascotia.ca

Instructors:

Dr. Rebecca Husted, TLAER Inc. (Technical Large Animal Emergency Rescue Inc.) - contributes her time and expertise to several international committees for equine welfare (PATH, International) and is the NFPA Standard 150 technical chair and subject matter expert. Her current research includes the physiological responses to technical rescue procedures and equipment in large animals. Victor MacPherson - Lead Instructor Equine Guelph Large Animal Emergency Rescue Program & facilitator for fire services response for Farm and Food Care Ontario. Retired District Fire Chief from the Adjala-Tosorontio Fire Department, Victor works with the City of Vaughan Fire as a Master Emergency Vehicle Technician. Dr. Chris Riley, Chair of Clinical Studies, Ontario Veterinary College. Former Manager of the Veterinary Emergency Response Team at Massey University, New Zealand; an inaugural board member of the Animal Emergency Incident Management ANZ, Australia, & Deputy Chair, National Animal Welfare Emergency Management Committee of the New Zealand Government.

Primary Audience:

Firefighters, police and other first responders, including veterinary clinicians, large animal owners/handlers

Equipment Required:

PPE - green patch safety footwear, gloves, and helmet
(safety glasses optional)

Register:

Click here or scan the QR Code to register

Scan to Register

Course Information

